

Stittsville Planning Primer

Thursday, April 6
6:30 to 9 p.m., presentation at 7 p.m.
Goulbourn Recreation Complex, Hall A
1500 Shea Road

Councillor Shad Qadri invites you to attend the Stittsville Planning Primer to learn more about the land use planning process and the ways in which residents can get involved. The presentations will focus on the types of development that are typical in Stittsville. City staff will be available to answer residents' questions about development in their community.

The Planning Primer will cover these topics:

- What is land use planning?
- The Planning Act and the Provincial Policy Statement
- The City's Official Plan and Comprehensive Zoning By-law
- The development application review process for zoning by-law amendments, plans of subdivision, site plans, severances, and minor variances
- Examples of approved development applications in Stittsville

Agenda

1. Open house
2. Councillor's welcoming remarks and introductions
3. Planning legislation and policies
4. Question and answer period
5. Development application review process and Stittsville examples
6. Question and answer period
7. Councillor's closing remarks

Seating is limited and will be provided on a first come, first serve basis.

Accessibility is an important consideration for the City of Ottawa. If you require special accommodation, please contact Councillor Shad Qadri by Friday, March 31.